

Honorary Doctorate Degree in Business Administration (Management)

Oknha Dr. TRY Pheap was born on 6th February 1965. He is 54 years old and obtained his Doctorate degree (Ph. D) in Economics from IIC University of Technology, Cambodia. At present, he is the Director-General of TRY PHEAP GROUP Co., Ltd. and also a Personal Advisor to the Prime Minister of the Kingdom of Cambodia.

Achievements Oknha Dr. TRY Pheap began his family business in the real estates and construction companies. Later, he has started on investments in agro-industrial crops, imports and exports, tourism, logistics, dry ports, and petroleum business. Presently, there are 14 companies under to TRY Pheap Group Co., Ltd. and his business has strongly been developed and recognised internationally.

In University Service Oknha Dr. TRY Pheap has granted social service activities as financial donation to hospitals and schools, facilitation in international trades between Cambodia and Thailand. In terms of education, as Director-General of TRY PHEAP GROUP Co., Ltd. Oknha Dr. TRY Pheap has supported and signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Rajamangala University of Technology Isan, aiming to abundantly support university endeavour in many aspects. These include opportunity for RMUTI students to have their Cooperate Education apprenticeship or training at TRY Pheap Group Co., Ltd, exchange of research and innovation between faculty members and TRY PHEAP personnel, and other supports deem to be relevant and beneficial for RMUTI as educational institution. Recently, he has offered financial support for Cambodian students studying at RMUTI under Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhorn Scholarship.

Professional Accomplishments Taking cognizance of the success of Okhna Try Pheap's highly outstanding achievements both in the business management and public service which serve as an exemplary model for succeeding generations, the University Council of RMUTI has approved the bestowal on Oknha Doctor Try Pheap, of the Honorary Doctorate Degree of Business Administration (Management) to honor his long and distinguished career and achievements.